Cut from the same cloth as the 2017, the 2018 Vacqueyras is the same 80/20 split of Grenache and Syrah that was mostly destemmed and brought up in concrete tanks. Classic notes of ground pepper, new leather, garrigue, and meaty, licorice-laced fruit all give way to a medium-bodied, balanced, satisfying barrel sample. It's ideal for drinking on release and over the following 5-7 years or so.
